

Theatre of Yugen, USA

Theatre of Yugen dedicates its work to the pursuit of the intangible essence of yugen [Yu- deep, quiet, gen – subtle, dark]. This American company was present in INFANT 2009 with the performance “Pretty” from The Cycle Plays, a play that establish a relation between traditional No drama linked with a contemporary dreadful story.

Jubilith Moore, one of the company long-time company members and the singer that represented Chorus in performance “Pretty”, was amazed by the concentration of many different performances that combines traditional with new and alternative theater, dance-theatre. She expressed her gratitude towards the organizer for letting them to participate in this edition of INFANT 2009.
