

Trickster Theatre, Switzerland

Trickster Theatre from Switzerland did really a theatrical marathon at INFANT 2009, playing “Like a prayer” five times during the last three days of the festival. As it is stated in the catalogue, the play is a “theatrical installation for 2 actors and 22 spectators”, that is in fact the reason of the numerous representations for that more people could see it.

Doing quite amazing and hard work, Cristina Galbiati and Ilija Luginbuhl were sad to admit they weren’t able to follow other participants’ works during the festival, but they were happy that the producer, Cultural Center of Novi Sad, gave them the opportunity to meet a very perceptive audience.
